*"The subject of Christian education is man whole and entire . . .
soul united to body in unity of nature . . .
with all his faculties natural and supernatural."*

—PIUS XI

The Ignatius graduate, the product of Jesuit Education, goes forth into God's world with . . .

his soul illumined by:

frequent reception of the Sacraments . . .

the Sodality and retreats . . .

Jesuit counsel and example.

his mind cultivated by:

college preparatory courses . . .

an up-to-date school library.

his body strengthened by:

supervised gym periods . . .

as a Catholic leader among men.

molder of men ...

He has never written a book. He is not a national celebrity. In the eyes of the worldly-wise, he is a man hidden in the shadows of an enigmatic vocation. But to his many friends, he is a man who has quietly, patiently, and persistently pursued an inestimable goal, that of a Jesuit educator and molder of men. No boy has ever been a mere name to him. No boy has ever sought guidance and gone away unaided. In the confessional, in his room, in class, at rallies, he has always strived to be of service to the young men entrusted to his care. Under the Christ-like charm of his personality, the souls, minds, and bodies of hundreds upon hundreds of young men have grown into the strength and character of manhood; this is Father Brockman's reward. In this lies his success. For only a man of character can mold men of character.

Faculty

"Perfect schools are the result not so much of good methods as of good teachers, teachers who are thoroughly prepared and well-grounded in the matter they have to teach, who possess the intellectual and moral qualifications required by their important office, who cherish a pure and holy love for the youths confided to them, because they love Jesus Christ and His Church, of which these are the children of predilection, and who have therefore sincerely at heart the true good of family and country."

Librarian, 1947-1954

A teenager to most people is a necessary evil that eventually develops into a man. If everyone thought that way, the status of youth in the world today would be a poor one.

Fortunately, this sentiment is not entertained by all. There are a few men and women left in the world who realize the importance of youth and do everything they can to help it. Such a person was Mrs. Agnes L. Tinney.

Year after year, Mrs. Tinney devoted herself to Ignatius and Ignatians. Thanks to her, the downstairs library is one of the best in any high school anywhere. More than once, her knowledge of books helped a befuddled freshman or a struggling senior to find a good book and to appreciate it fully. She realized that books represented a whole new world for boys, a world she thought so wonderful that she devoted years to revealing it to Ignatians.

On February 26, 1954, Mrs. Tinney went home on sick leave. After a long and painful illness, during which her patience and Christian resignation were a source of edification to all who visited her, she died in Ashtabula, Ohio, on August 16, 1954.

We thank Mrs. Tinney for all she has done for Ignatius. We know that her reward is one far greater than we Ignatians could ever offer.

"Boldy" enjoyed a fast jitterbug almost as much as he enjoyed a hard-fought victory on the Wildcat gridiron.

ROBERT R. BEWLEY
1927 West 54th Street

Football J.V. 2; Intramurals.

"Flash's" life ambition is to find a word that Mr. McPartlin can't define.

RICHARD J. BONSUBTO
3480 West 94th St.

Band 1; Football J.V. 2, 3, Varsity 4;
Basketball Frosh, J.V. 2.
"Bonnie's" block of a Latin punt almost brought the Monroe trophy to Ignatius.

PAUL J. BRABENEC
19737 Telbir Ave.

Second Honors 2; Sodality 1, 4; Art Club
2; Golf 3, 4; I.A.A. 2, 4; Science Club 4.
"Cy" came close to getting the high point honors in intramural basketball. His determination shows us that he will be a success in whatever he attempts.

PETER D. BUNOSKY
2154 West 20th St.

Second Honors 1, 4; Art Club 2.
"Bruno" was one of the few Ignatians who could come to school Monday morning with a perfectly brushed crew-cut and all his homework.

WILLIAM A. BURIAN
16902 Clifton Blvd.

Football Varsity 4; Harlequins 4; Monogram Club 4.
Although Bill came to Ignatius in his third year, his immediately acquired school spirit gained him many friends.

Mr. McPartlin was Bob's only snag in his trek through Ignatius.

JOHN A. DURKIN
17120 Greenwood Ave.

Sodality 1; Class Officer 1; Mission Collector 1.

"Durk" has fiery red hair and an Irish temper to match, but at St. Ignatius his many friends gave him no cause to show it.

JOSEPH M. DUNN
16345 Bagley Rd.

Football Manager 3; Harlequins 3, 4; Science Club 3, 4.

Many things were done by Dunn and he did them because all who didn't do them were doing things that Joe didn't want done to the things he did! Joe helped clean dirty football jerseys!

THOMAS J. DZIAK
2138 W. 17th St.

Art Club 1; Football Manager 3; Baseball Manager 2; Basketball Manager 2; Basketball J.V. 3; Track 3.

JAMES JARMUSCH

Jim Jarmusch was, to all appearances, like any other freshman. He attended Mass in St. Mary's, played with his classmates in the school yard and in the gym, worked hard at his homework, and maybe even went to jug.

But under the appearances, Jim was different. He had been selected for a special vocation, the apostolate of suffering reserved by God for His chosen few.

Jim was with us a little over a month when the hand of God touched him. Early in October, he left school for the hospital. His illness was diagnosed as colitis. Days of pain followed, all of which Jim bore patiently. Just before Christmas, he was given only a few days to live. But to the surprise of nurses and doctors he lingered on. Then on December 28 James Jarmusch quietly passed away.

He could have died on no better day. It was the Feast of the Holy Innocents.

Activities

"Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual, domestic and social, not with a view of reducing it in any way, but in order to elevate, regulate and perfect it, in accordance with the example and teaching of Christ."

—PIUS XI

Father Kanuch, Senior Sodality moderator, addresses the Sodalists in St. Mary's.

His Excellency, Archbishop Hoban, formally receives Bob Gladis and Dave Sheehan into the Sodality of our Lady.

In the Queen's Service

The big thorn in the side of Communism today is the perfect Catholic. The Sodality at St. Ignatius trained the students to become perfect Catholics, with Christ and Mary as examples. The Sodalists first developed a sense of holiness in themselves by reception of the sacraments, mental prayer, and the Rosary. Then, a careful study was made of the problems which face the adults of tomorrow. After the Sodalists read about the circumstances surrounding a particular problem, they discussed it at the weekly meeting of their units.

The moderators of activities knew that they could depend on Sodalists for cooperation, a sense of responsibility, and the constant promotion of Christ-like and Mary-like ideals.

The Sodalists not only took part in the spiritual activities of the school, but they sponsored many of them: the October Rosary; the Days of Recollection, one on the closing day of the Marian Year and the other during Lent; the Christmas Canned Food Drive, in which cans were collected and distributed to the poor. Sodalists also served the students' Mass.

In the world of today, which usually demands payment for any extra service, the Ignatian Sodalists demonstrated Christian charity. After school, they either went to the County Nursing Home to help out, or they journeyed to the Merrick House for the purpose of conducting physical education classes for the youngsters.

The outstanding achievement of Ignatius Sodalists was the fact that they proved that Christ could be taken "down from the pedestal" and put into the world of today. The present Pontiff has such a high regard for this Catholic Action group that he calls the Sodalists his "minute men" who are bringing the morals and examples of the perfect Catholic to places into which priests and bishops cannot go.

As far as we can judge, the Sodality had a successful year. But in the last analysis, its real success depends on how much closer the soul of each Sodalist has come to Christ and Mary during this most eventful year.

Archbishop Hoban celebrates Solemn Benediction in St. Patrick's at the close of the Sodality reception attended by students and their parents.

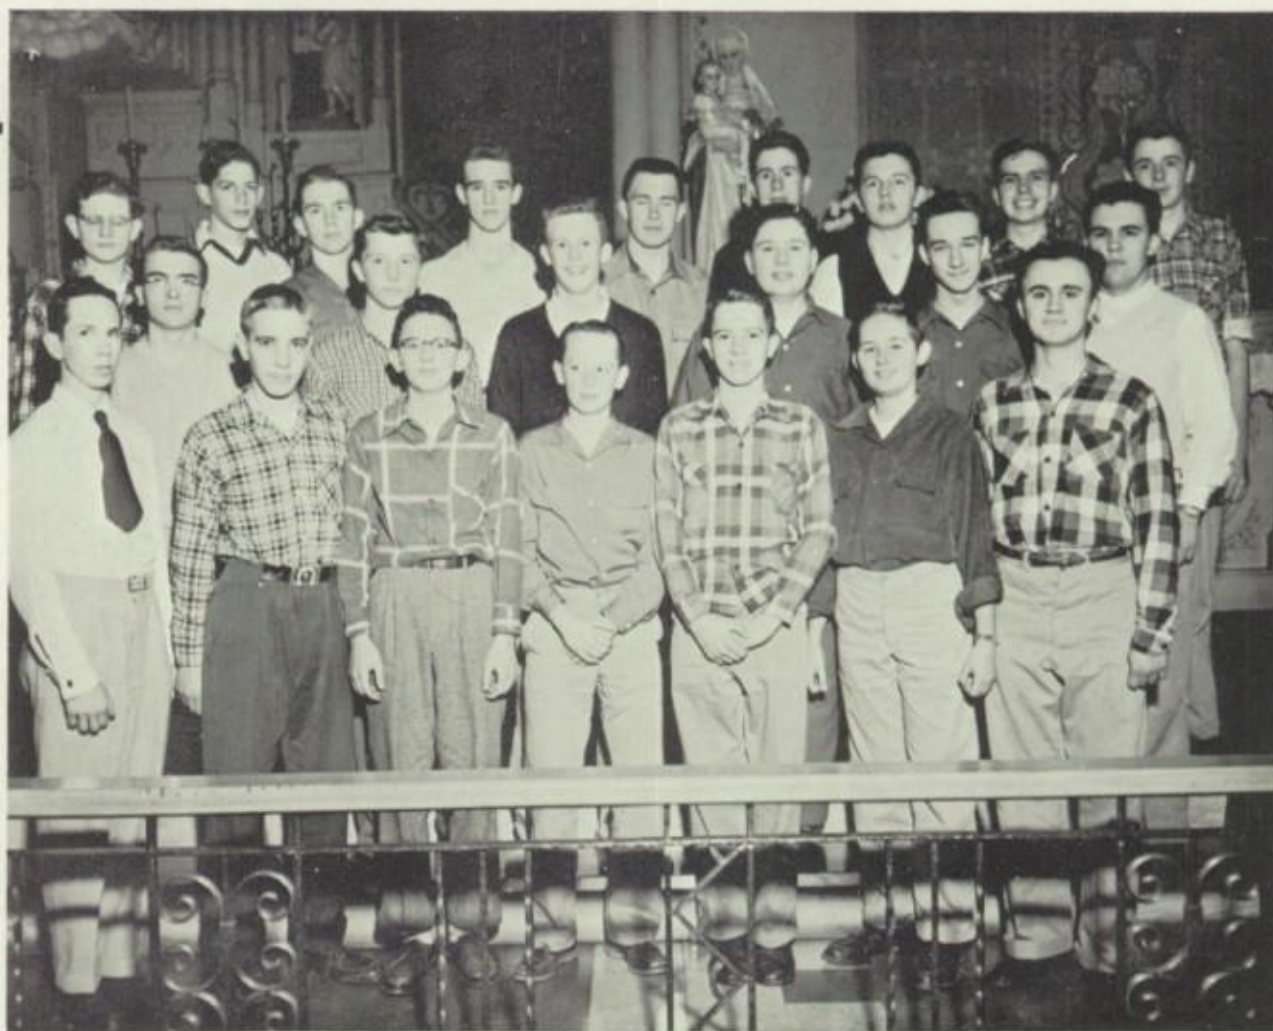

St. Ignatius Sodalists do not just happen. They are the result of a training program that is as vigorous as that of the Marines.

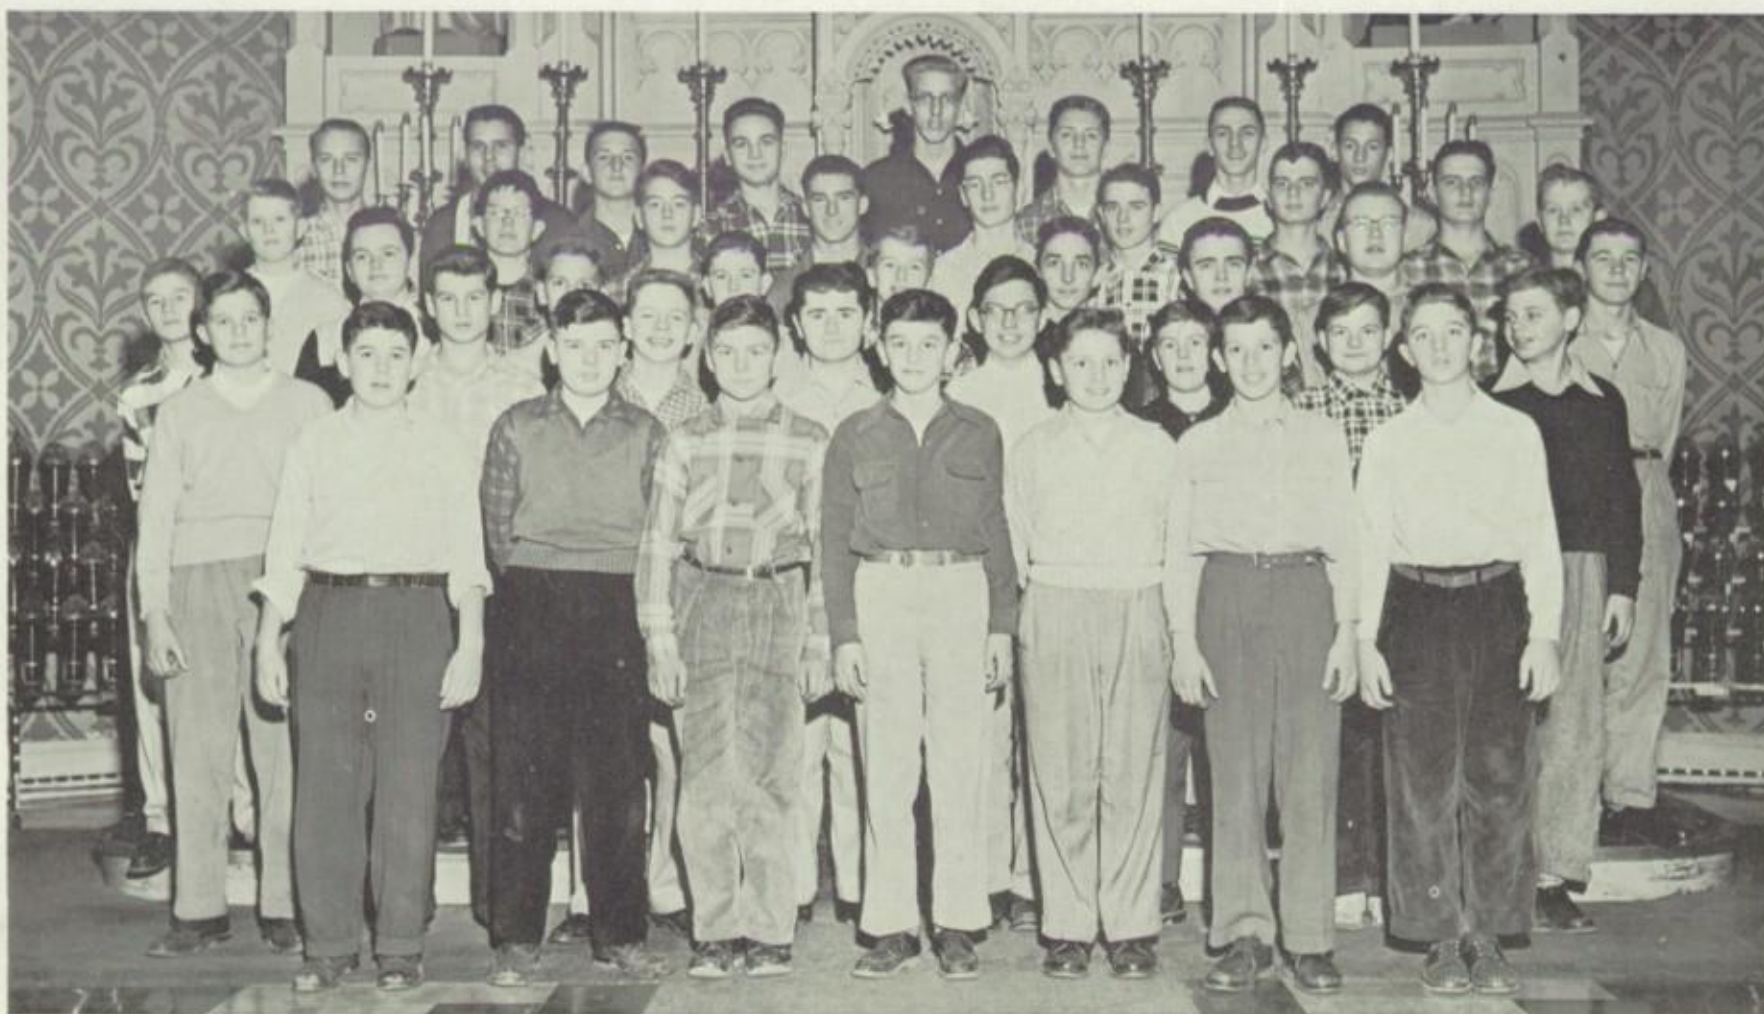

Sodality training at St. Ignatius begins in September of the school year. The candidates are freshmen. Throughout the year, each candidate incorporates the elements of the Sodality into his own life. At probation meetings, he studies the history of the Sodality and its rules. In May, the candidates make a permanent Act of Consecration to Christ and to Mary, and are received into the Sodality.

As sophomores, the Sodalists deepen their love for Christ and Mary by reading about and discussing Sodality Saints. They show that they can team up with Christ and His Mother and still be normal, energetic, and fun-loving young men.

Brink's Annex

Mr. Shea, moderator of the I.A.A., and sophomores Doyle, Rice, Fallat, and Kolesar smile at the end of a hard day's work in the I.A.A.

Behind the windows of the Ignatius Athletic Association are the Ignatian industrialists. They handle the business part of every club, organization, committee, and team that is a part of Ignatius. If you want to see the Wildcats play, buy an annual, back the Ignatius play, pay for a prom bid, obtain tickets for a dance, or buy anything that is sold in the way of tickets, you can buy it through the windows of the I.A.A.

Art Club hot-rods and Santa's helpers gather outside their annex studio. Standing: Palko, G. Smith, Suchma, Brickel. Kneeling: Sullivan, Stenger, Prosen, McNamee, Petkash, Zeitz, Baker, Gross, and Hitz.

The Art of School Spirit

Whenever a patron drive, raffle, or sports event occurred during the school year, the Art Club was called upon to furnish the publicity. The request was usually answered with large, artistic banners and posters which transformed the main hall—and sometimes the artists themselves—into a kaleidoscope of colors.

These talented boys, organized and directed by Art Club President Carl Moravec, gave their time and effort generously. Many a time one would walk down the basement corridor of the annex long after school had closed only to see the light still burning in the art club and the boys diligently putting the finishing touches on a sparkling poster advertising the yearbook or spurring student interest in the next week's game.

Many of the boys developed native artistic talent as they worked together on banners and posters that varied from ancient Greek drawings to modern abstract art. The hours of labor were always rewarded by the appreciative chuckles of the faculty and student body as they surveyed the newest creations of the artists. Carl Moravec's weekly sheet of caricatures and drawings, the Sodalist-ner, was always good for a hearty laugh as well as many a serious thought.

All in all, every school activity that was successful owed its success to the hard-working and school-spirited artists. With them, school spirit itself was an art.

"A masterpiece!" Joe Patrick looks over his life-like portrait of Carl Moravec as Jerry Krispinsky and John Czerapowicz look on approvingly.

SENIOR DEBATERS. Seated: Gross, Suchma, Yartz, Fegen, and De Rocher. Standing: Madden, Brown, Baker, Hopkins, Hoislbauer, Kapitan, Jirkans, McManamon, White, and Mahoney.

Moderator Mr. Tracy, S.J., helps senior debater Ed Madden prepare some notes for a traffic safety show over a local television network.

Under the astute tutelage of Mr. Har-ker E. Tracy, S.J., the '55 Senior De-baters staged a campaign to put Igna-tius on the map speech-wise. At the Saturday tournaments, the name "St. Ignatius" came to be feared and re-spected by other schools. Ignatians' reputation as debaters spread until they were being invited to big down-state tournaments. The spirit of the group was typified the time that Igna-tius debaters entered the tourney at Cuyahoga Falls. Travelling farther over snow-covered roads than any other group, Ignatius still had a greater representation than any other high school.

A particularly successful venture was the traffic safety tournament, in which St. Ignatius placed in the top three.

"And I promise you ..."

Mr. McPartlin, S.J., moderator of the Speech Squad, helps Tom Mawby and Dave Peebles prepare their renditions of speeches from Cyrano de Bergerac and The Caine Mutiny.

On Stage

A muscle-massage inventor, a tax-evader, a maker of fireworks, a servant that catches flies for pet snakes, and a whole household of delightfully zany nitwits entertained Ignatians and their parents in the 1955 Harlequin production, "You Can't Take it with You." The highly successful two-night run at St. Patrick's Auditorium was a tribute to the hard work of moderator Mr. Konerman, S.J., student director George Hopkins, and the entire cast. Finances for the production were capably handled by Peter Fegen, John Gingerich, and Paul Brabenec. Bill Burian directed those indispensable members of every play, the stage crew.

Move that Pawn

In spite of a late start, the pawn-pushers looked forward to a very successful season. In the first semester, the Chess Club participated in tournaments with John Adams, St. Edward, and West Tech. They also made a good showing in the Interscholastic Chess Tournament.

In the second semester, they prepared to take top honors in the newly-organized Parochial League.

"Cheese!"

Front row: Sauvain, Herceg, and McSoley. Second row: Hearns, Smith, Zabawa, F. Kappes, Spillane, Christen, and Smyczek. Third row: Gill, Gretchko, Faulhaber, Lichtenberg, Onk, Kapelka, J. Kappes, Mihalko, and Lang. Camera-shy: Beznoska, Brickel, J. Campbell, Mishler, Betz, Cummins, Skoch, White, Higgins, Pasek, and Sand.

This year was another workout for the growing Camera Club. The members not only had the largest attendance in many years, but they got things done. Their darkroom was repainted and modernized. They had contests among themselves and with other schools. Professional photographers addressed the group on the finer points of picture taking.

The shutter-bugs, of course, furnished most of the pictures for the school newspaper, The Eye, and a number for The Ignatian.

Ignatius Choraliers

"Stop wheezing, flea-bag. Sing!"

With this gentle admonition from their stout-hearted moderator, Mr. McPartlin, S.J., the gallant Choraliers practiced diligently in the annex music room.

One of the highlights of the year's choral program was the visiting of various Cleveland hospitals during the Christmas holidays. Inaugurating a change in style, the Choraliers added descants and cannons to their repertoire, which included such traditional carols as "Deck the Halls," "The Snow Lay on the Ground," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," and "Jingle Bells."

Tower Club

The members of the Stamp Club combined a healthy desire for knowledge with a more than incidental study of history, geography, and fine art. A cultural student activity, its popularity was evidence of the universal appeal that distinguishes philately as the outstanding hobby of men and women the world over. Under the expert direction of Fr. Vana, S.J., a collector of note himself, the Stampers gathered regularly in their exclusive club room in the "Tower."

High-

Activity might well be the watchword of each and every member of the band. Their playing at rallies, the yearly concert, and the marching at the games establishes this fact. The band was not merely a musical organization but also a group of individuals bound together with many common interests.

As the band marched on the field to parade for us, it was a source of amazement to all how they could learn the new maneuvers in the short time of one week. This can be accredited to the fine leadership of band director Mr. Jack Hearn and band moderator Mr. Thomas Zuber, S.J., as well as to the fine effort of the band members themselves.

We take our hats off to a fine band that not only played well but also gave an outstanding example of school spirit.

Classicists Suchma, Yartz, Furin, Scanlon, Majzler, Mansfield, and Bodnar pause for a picture during their study of the Latin authors. Missing: Masterson and Mahoney.

O Tempora!

"Arma virumque cano . . ."

Rolling off the sonorous phrases of Cicero and Virgil, Ignatius classicists polished up their Latin in preparation for the annual interscholastic Latin contest held among the Jesuit high schools in five states. St. Ignatius took the laurels, thanks to seniors John Mahoney, who placed second, and junior John Mansfield, who placed fifth.

Cum Laude

The local chapter of the National Honor Society, Sigma Iota Gamma, expanded and tried to make itself known among the student body. Membership in the Honor Society became the aim of every student.

Students are nominated by members of the organization. Prospective members must have a high scholastic average and must be active in class and extra-curricular activities. They are then voted upon by the members of the Society.

Men of Science

The Thursday morning Science Clubbers met regularly during the year to discuss subjects closely related to their physics classes. With the aid of Fr. John Stejskal, S.J., they were able to explore the secrets not only of radio, but those of the other sciences. There were talks on the solar system, nuclear energy, and even a heated debate over the relative merits of the steam engine and the diesel-electric locomotive. All in all, the year proved very valuable to the Science Clubbers for they were able not only to read about physics but also to see its application during their weekly meetings.

First row: Kriesen, McNamee, Kalla, Gehring, J. F. Murray, Betz, Gula, and Gerlak. Second row: Harvey, Rice, Brickman, J. M. ## Junior Kegglers

"Wow, a strike!"

"Set up those pins, man!"

"Gutter ball!"

Every Thursday afternoon, Joe Krupa's Franklin Rec was the scene of frenzied activity as Ignatius bowlers met to compete in the intramural league. Moderator of the junior kegglers was Mr. Joseph Knecht, S.J.

BOOSTERS. Wittman, Onk, Reichard (seated on edge of desk), Lang, Linnevers, O'Brien, Patton, Kemeny (kneeling before desk), and Brandabur. Seated: Kilbane.

Booster Club

One of the newest organizations at Ignatius was the Booster Club. Composed of school-spirited Ignatians, the club served to promote the spirit of the students in varied activities. Feature attraction of the club was the large banner won each week by the class best represented at football and basketball games.

India may seem a far-off, exotic land to many people. But to Ignatians it was a very close reality every Tuesday. That was the day that Ignatians generously contributed to the support of the Jesuit mission in Patna, India. Fr. Stanley A. Vana, S.J., organized and directed this supremely charitable work of Ignatians.

Seniors Mike Johns and John Ankenbrandt received the Palladin Jewel, highest award of the Propagation of the Faith, for four years of faithful service as mission collectors.

The "I" Men

The Monogram Club was made up of all the varsity athletes at Ignatius. Its members showed that they were specialists not only in the field of sports but also in school spirit. They could be found at the head of all the school's activities. They were, then, a true cross-section of the Ignatius student body.

Moonlight and Roses

"If only school were always like this!" At the Christmas Dance Ignatians and their dates danced to the music of Dick Eleck's Orchestra.

Two of the outstanding social functions of the year at St. Ignatius were the seasonal dances, the Thanksgiving Dance and the Christmas Dance.

On Thanksgiving evening, seniors and juniors arrived at the brightly decorated St. Patrick's Hall on Bridge Ave. Clutched proudly in their hands were bids and their dates. They danced the evening away to the lilting strains of Hal Lynn's Orchestra.

Once again at Christmas time St. Ignatius had a dance at St. Patrick's. Only this time the Senior Sodality sponsored the affair and all Ignatians were cordially invited. A good number came from all classes. The music was supplied by Dick Eleck and his music men.

Such social events as these helped Ignatians to develop their personalities and better their social standing.

"Did you write your story yet?"

"Where's my headline?"

"Who'll type this thing for me?"

If you have ever walked down the hall of the third floor of the main building after 2:40 P.M., you probably have heard these songs of woe.

As you walked down that lonely hall you probably saw that one lonely room had a light on, a room on the right side of the hall. It had a sign on the door: The Eye Office. You probably thought to yourself, "So here's where those lazy guys put out that small newspaper. Only once a month too."

If you had stepped into the office, you would have seen that there was work being done and much more to be done. Chances are that if you had gone back at 6:00 P.M. or 7:00 P.M. the editors and staff would still have been working.

Few people realize the amount of work that goes into the production of a school newspaper. It ordinarily takes five editors and a moderator three weeks to prepare the reporters' stories for the printer. Each issue must be new, different, and sparkling to catch your eye. But the way you and other Ignatians received The Eye was always just compensation for all the sweat and hard work that went into putting out the paper.

Eye editors talk over plans for the next issue with moderator Mr. Kelly, S.J. Seated: Bodnar, Mansfield, and Hagerty, Editor-in-chief. Standing: Banoczi, Linden, De Rocher, and Tomor.

Take a worthwhile idea. Give it to a group of young men willing to smooth its rough edges and to polish it until it is diamond-clear in all its facets. A worthwhile idea. A group of hard-working young men. There is the winning combination for a good yearbook. There is the combination for the 1955 Ignatian.

In retrospect, it is hard to say just where, when, or by whom our theme of Jesuit education was conceived. Like many lines converging on a point, cooperative effort is the real and final answer.

Our distinctively modern treatment, too, grew out of the desire of all on the staff to present the theme idea in as striking a way as possible. We wanted to show that the 400 year old tradition of Jesuit education is as modern and up-to-date today as it was in the middle of the sixteenth century.

We tried to convey this idea in pictures and in story—your pictures and your story. For this is your book. You, your friends, your teachers—they make Ignatius. A part of that Ignatius is captured forever in this book.

So here it is: the one, the only, the 1955 Ignatian. We hope you like it.

The new look—St. Ignatius, 1955.

Men Behind the School

Faculty, students, and many a passer-by gazed in happy astonishment last summer as workers sandblasted away seventy years of soot and dirt to reveal the red-hued brick and artistic stone designs of the original St. Ignatius. Today, Ignatians can point with even more pride to their alma mater.

The men who made possible the new look of the school are the members of the Fathers Club and the Alumni Association, both directed by Fr. Robert P. Pingstock, S.J. It was the generous and unstinting cooperation of these men which made last year's scholarship drive the success it was. Only one who has seen at close range the interest of the fathers in their sons' school and the unflagging devotion of the alumni can realize what these two groups mean to Ignatius.

Mrs. Lindquist takes time out from her work as secretary of the Fathers Club and Alumni Association to look at the photographer.

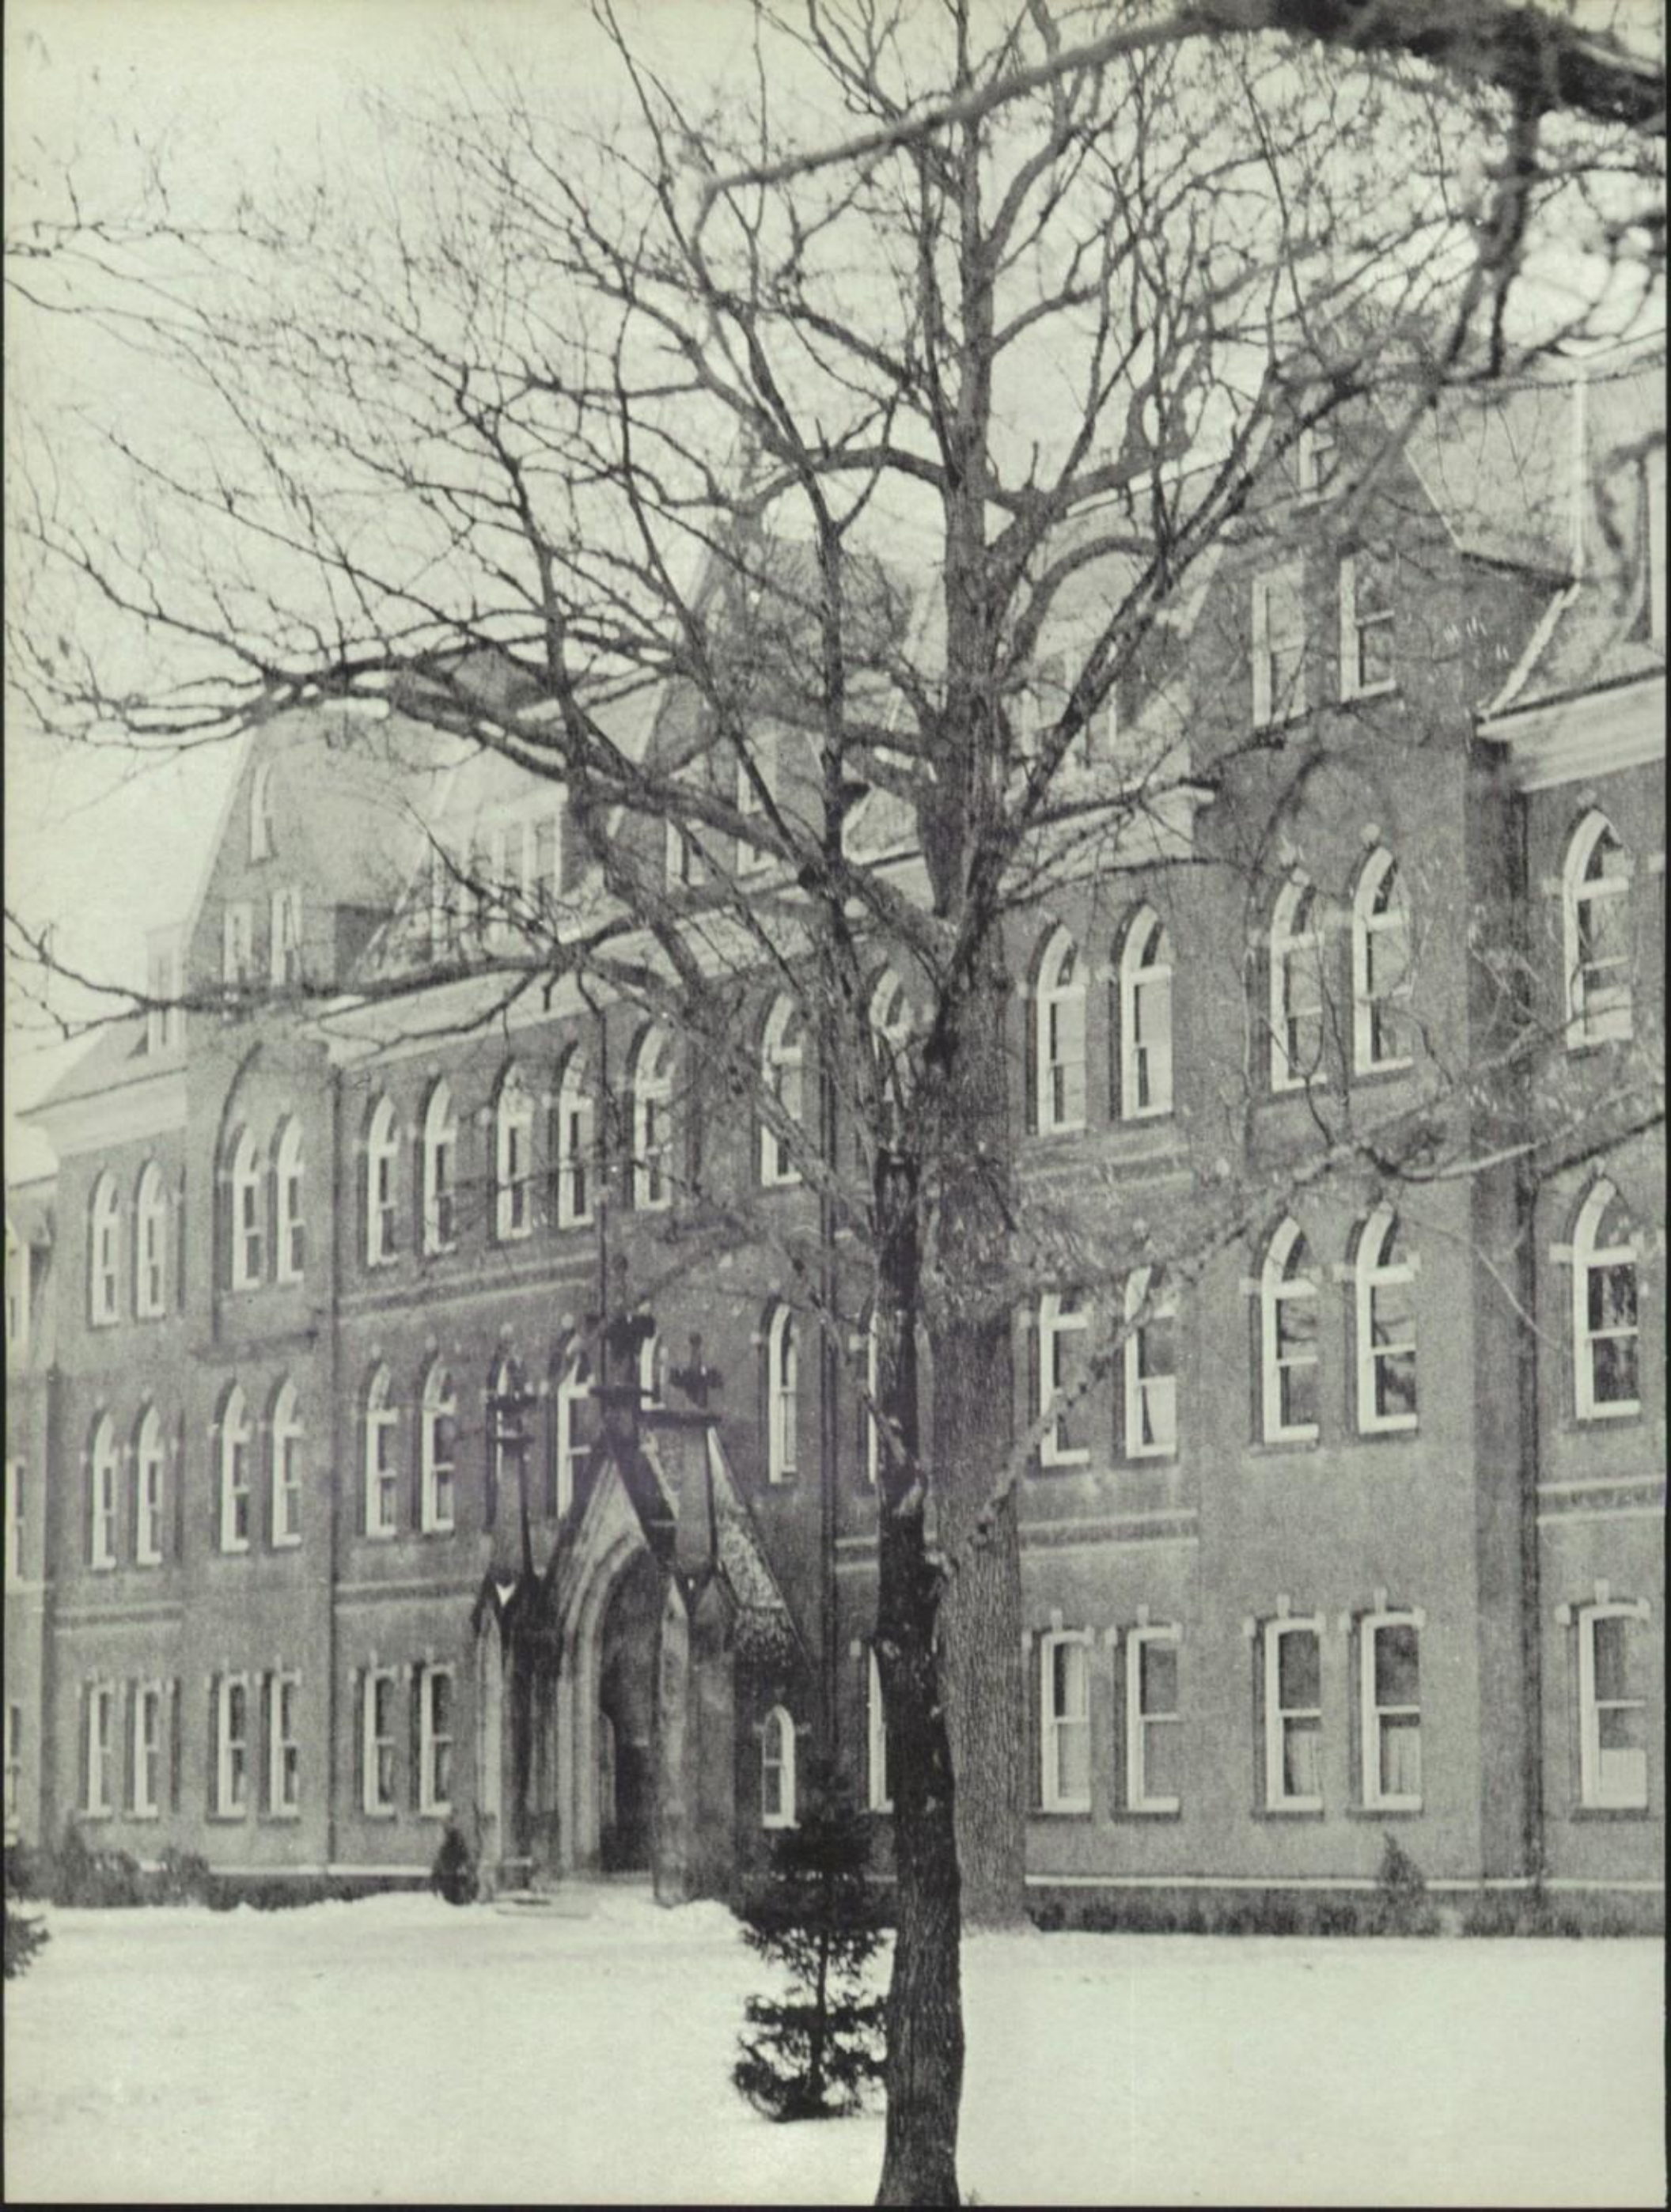

Fr. Pingstock is the energetic and capable director of the Fathers Club and the Ignatius-Loyola Alumni Association.

Kehoe, speaker and President of the Alumni Association, Fr. Pingstock, William R. Furlong, and Matt A. Fitzgerald. The plaque in front of Mr. Kehoe is the Gerald B. Garvey Alumni Award given each year to an outstanding alumnus. Recipient this year was James Hogue. Fr. Garvey is the founder of the Alumni Association.

Fr. Robert J. Koch, S.J., President of University of Detroit High School, gave the sophomore and freshman retreat.

Fr. Thomas C. Vaughn, S.J., led the juniors through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius here at school.

Time out for God

In a Jesuit education, there is an emphasis on the cultivation of the soul. Here at Ignatius, part of this development is achieved during the annual retreat in January. Many seniors and juniors spent their retreat at St. Stanislaus Retreat House in Parma. Here they enjoyed the quiet seclusion of the retreat house for their three days with God. Everyone left St. Stan's a much better man. Back at Ignatius, the remaining students prayed and listened to retreat talks for three days. The retreatmasters were Fr. Robert J. Koch, S.J., and Fr. Thomas C. Vaughn, S.J. All in all, we were glad we had the opportunity to "even up the score" with God before starting the second semester.

In Praise of Mr. Two

Everybody likes a winner. And there are always people ready to cheer for a good loser. But whoever praised a team that came in second?

So this is in praise of the almost-winner, the nearly-champion. This is in praise of Mr. Two.

Ask the winner of any race how good a man is Mr. Two. Ask Holy Name, the West Senate champions, how good a team was St. Ignatius. They will tell you that it was St. Ignatius who made them block harder, run faster, and tackle harder. It was St. Ignatius who made them give that extra little bit. It was St. Ignatius pressing hard at the heels of Holy Name, threatening always to overtake and pass them, that made the West Senate race so close.

It is Mr. Two that makes the real competition.

The Cats had lost all eleven starters from the 1953 team. They did not have a single man over 200 pounds and were not expected to go anywhere in the West Senate. However, this year's Wildcats, thanks to the astute tutelage of Coach John Wirtz and Assistant Coach Bob Kilfoyle as well as their speed and overwhelming desire to win, went on to become Mr. Two in the West Senate and Mr. Three in the Greater Cleveland District.

So this is for you, St. Ignatius. This is the story of Mr. Two. This is for all the days you tried for first and came in second. This is for all the times when you thought nobody noticed. We noticed, Mr. Two. We know the score. Winner or not, you are a natural champion.

These men received special recognition for their standout performances:

John Seliskar: All-West Senate, All-Scholastic.

Pat Scanlon: All-West Senate, All-Scholastic, All-Catholic.

Dick Mihalus: All-West Senate, All-Scholastic, All-Catholic.

Dave Maskell: All-Catholic.

The Wildcats opened their '54 season against Latin with an added incentive, the Monroe Trophy. In the third quarter, Dick Mihalus' spectacular punt return of 85 yards put the Cats ahead 13-6. But Latin's heavier line wore down the spirited Wildcats. Latin eventually won, 19-13.

By virtue of an easy 42-19 victory over South's Fliers, the Saints gained reputation as the team to beat in the West Senate.

A fine block by an unidentified Wildcat springs scatback Dick Mihalus loose for needed yardage.

Football rallies came to an end with the students' singing of the school song.

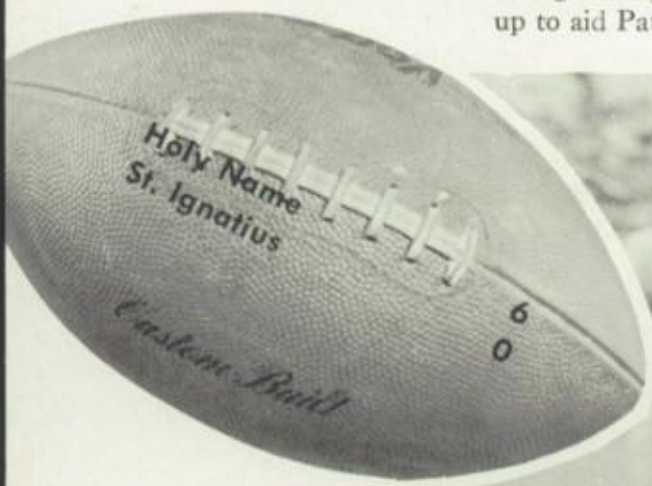

Coach Wirtz and a determined pack of Wildcats take the field.

The Wildcats kept their West Senate slate clean by whipping John Marshall, 28-0. Bill Voitlein's 41 yard scamper was the longest run of the night.

The Saints, lacking their usual spirit, bowed to Holy Name by the score of 6-0. Led by All-Scholastic Bob Ptacek, the Green Wave scored early in the second period and held the lead for the rest of the game.

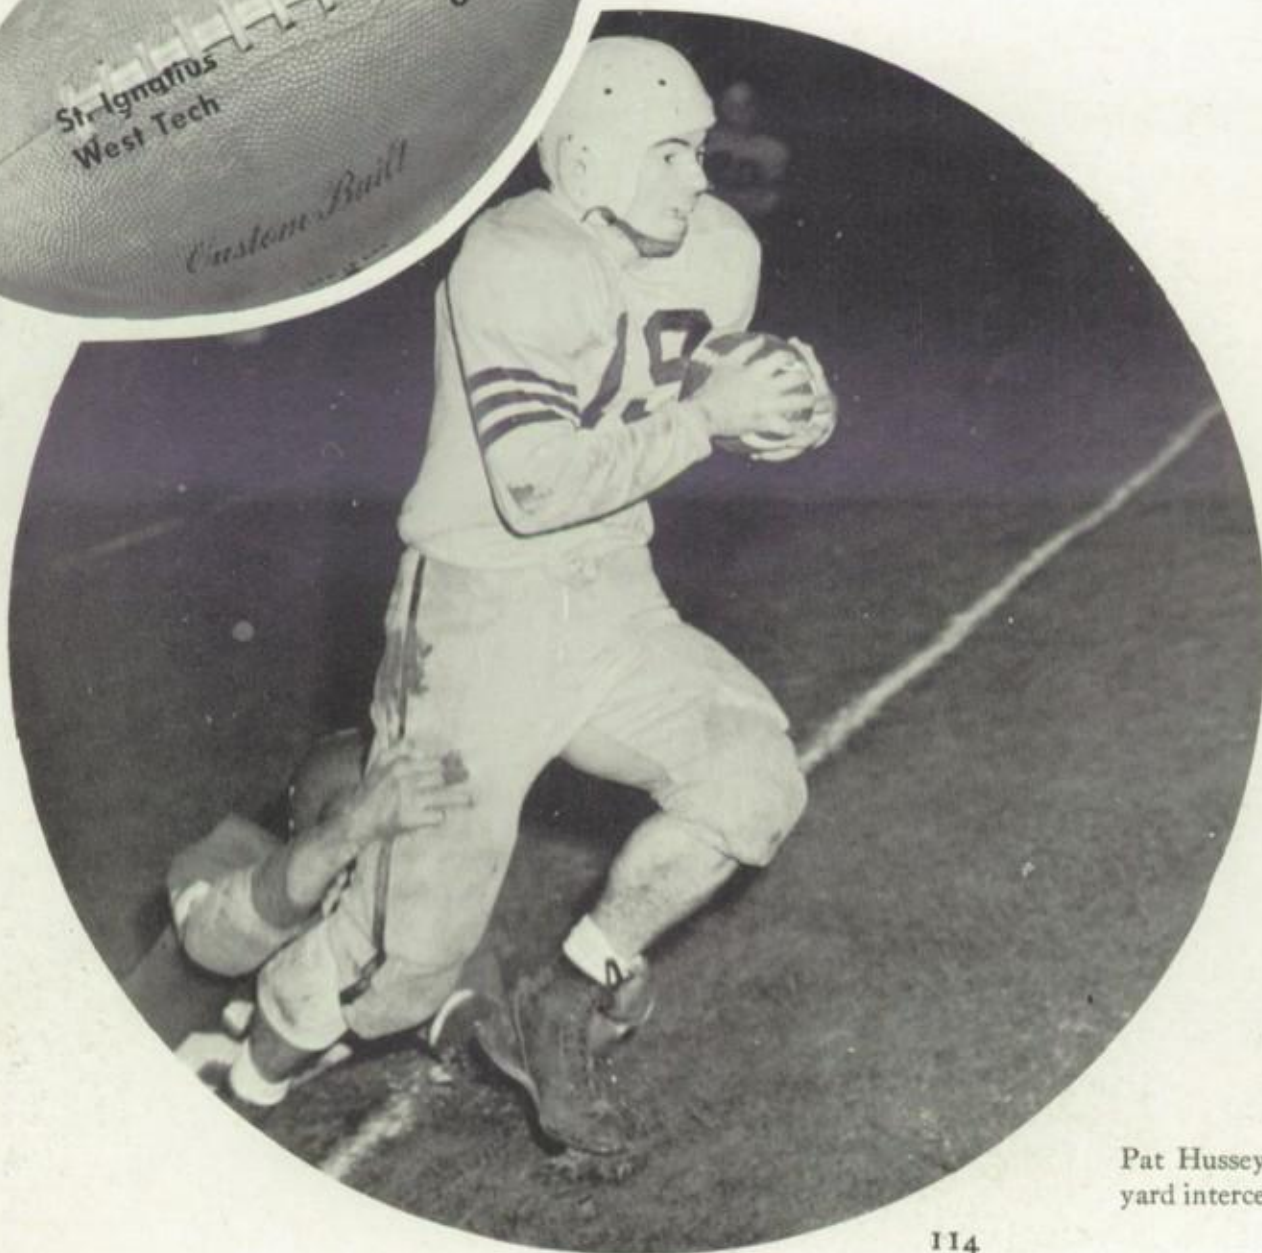

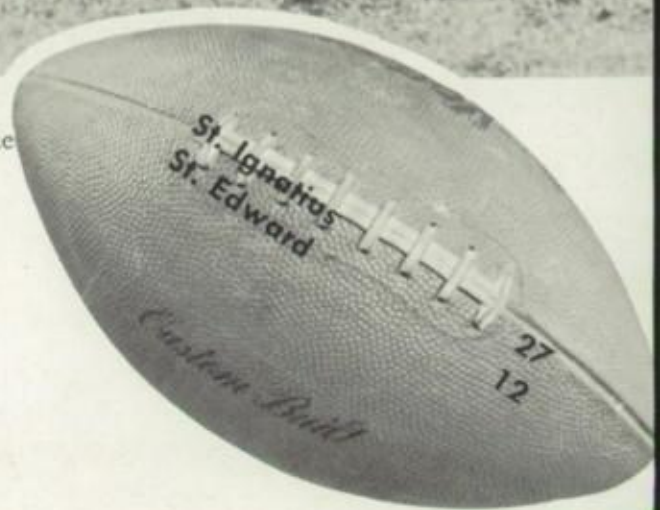

George Haas, Dave Maskell, and Tom Ploucha move up to aid Pat Hussey in downing a Holy Namer.

Dick Mihalus tries to out-manuever Eagle defenders in the slosch of St. Edward's field.

St. Edward was again the victim in the three-year old rivalry between the two West side schools. This time the Eagles lost to the tune of 27-12. The Cats, continuing their spirited play, proved to be the better "mudders" as they ran roughshod over the hapless "Mighty" Eagles in St. Edward's own rain-drenched stadium.

The next week, West Tech, still contenders in the Senate, almost beat the Wildcats, but the plucky Saints emerged victorious, 13-6. Hussey ran 99 yards after a pass interception; the run was called back, however, on a clipping penalty.

Pat Hussey starts up the field on a 99 yard interception return against Tech.

Touchdown! Under that pile is quarterback John Gingerich who has just sneaked over the line for his score in the Rhodes game.

Bill Voitlein uses a Rhodes man for a cushion as he is tackled.

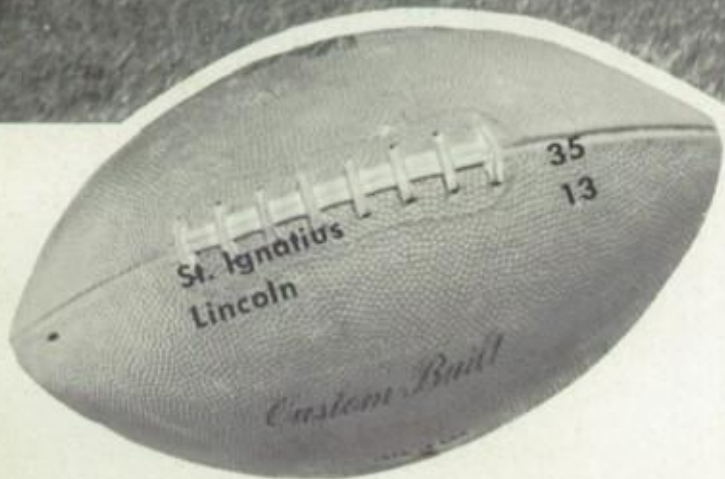

Remembering last year's 21-7 loss to the Rams, Ignatius wanted to knock Rhodes from the race. With spirited play they did just that to the tune of 13-0. At one time the Cats marched 94 yards down the field.

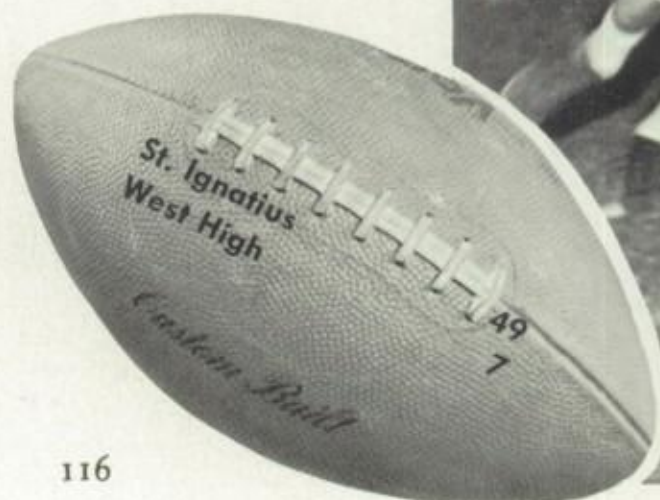

Dick Mihalus seems to be hypnotizing this Lincoln defender into letting him by. P.S. He went by.

With the title in closer view, the Wildcats went on to rip Lincoln, 35-13. In doing so, they piled up 306 yards. Gingerich, Maskell, Voitlein, Mihalus, and Hyland each tallied once.

Although Holy Name won the title, the Saints ran all over West in the final game of the season. Hussey made two TD's while Willis, Voitlein, Mihalus, Kantor, and Haas had one apiece. Jack Fraser completed a very successful season with five conversions.

Best in

The 1954 edition of the Wildcat J. V. football team showed the city of Cleveland how a team should work. They showed it to the tune of seven victories, one tie, and no losses. Coach George Gordon's boys scored 218 points to their opponents' 31. But even while they were riding high on the crest of success, the grid-ders never quit working hard. Day after day, they improved themselves under the tutelage of Mr. Gordon. The J. V.'s reached their zenith the day they whipped John Marshall 54-0 to cop the West Senate J. V. title. However, the sweetest victory of the year was the 25-0 walloping of West Tech who had beaten Ignatius' J. V.'s for three straight years.

Coach Gordon looks as if he is in pain. That's because the J.V.'s scored only one touchdown at a time!

Piloting the champs at quarterback was Mike Hayes, a slick ball handler and field general. George Piatak's and Vince Capka's quick thrusts from their halfback positions harried opponents constantly. George Blaha blasted away from his fullback position. Leading the charge on the line was center Bob Arnold, flanked by guards Mike Murphy and Pat McHugh. Opening the holes at tackle were Bob Lungo and Norm Vargo. At the ends were Dick Walsh and John McHale. These eleven gridders were backed at all times by strong and talented reserves.

The 1954 Wildkittens posted the finest record which a freshman football team at Ignatius has established in at least ten years. While they defeated six other strong teams, their only defeat was to a decidedly heavier Collinwood squad.

Much of the credit is to be attributed to the Wildkittens' new coach, Mr. Charles Bouie. Under his direction, the stellar performance of individuals and good, all-round team play put the mighty mites over the top. Their spirit, ability, and determination indicate the West Senate champions of 1957.

As the end of the football season drew near, the seniors played their annual East-West football game. During the first half the play was dominated by the East side, even though the half-time score was only 7 for the East and 6 for the West. The scores came on a plunge by East-sider Ray Lancaster and an eight yard sweep around end by West-sider Don Dzuban.

At the beginning of the second half the West-siders were full of fight and really started rolling. Their halfbacks smashed into the East line. Ed Roy climaxed the drive with a 35 yard double reverse. The East tried again but was halted and again the West scored on a plunge by fullback "Big" Tom Kilbane. The final score was made on a safety for the West side. Final score: West—21, East—7.

Alley Cats

The varsity bowling team, which finished its season with 32 wins and 36 losses, was composed of Chuck Stewart, Noel Paynic, Larry Spicer, Bob Arnold, Tom McManamon, and Rich Mihalus. Mr. Joseph Knecht, S.J., was the moderator. The team ended up in seventh place, but won a second place trophy for the second high three game series of 2687 and a trophy for a high singles game of 954. Chuck Stewart also won a first place trophy for an individual three game series of 649.

Senate Record 10-4

Season Record 11-7

Not much height, great speed, and an intense desire to win is a perfect description of this year's Wildcat basketball team. After the Cats lost their first game to St. Edward, the sports-minded people of Cleveland said that this would not be Ignatius' year. They forgot one thing: the Wildcats' traditional desire to win. Because of this tremendous desire, Ignatius rooters knew that they could not be counted out of the Senate race.

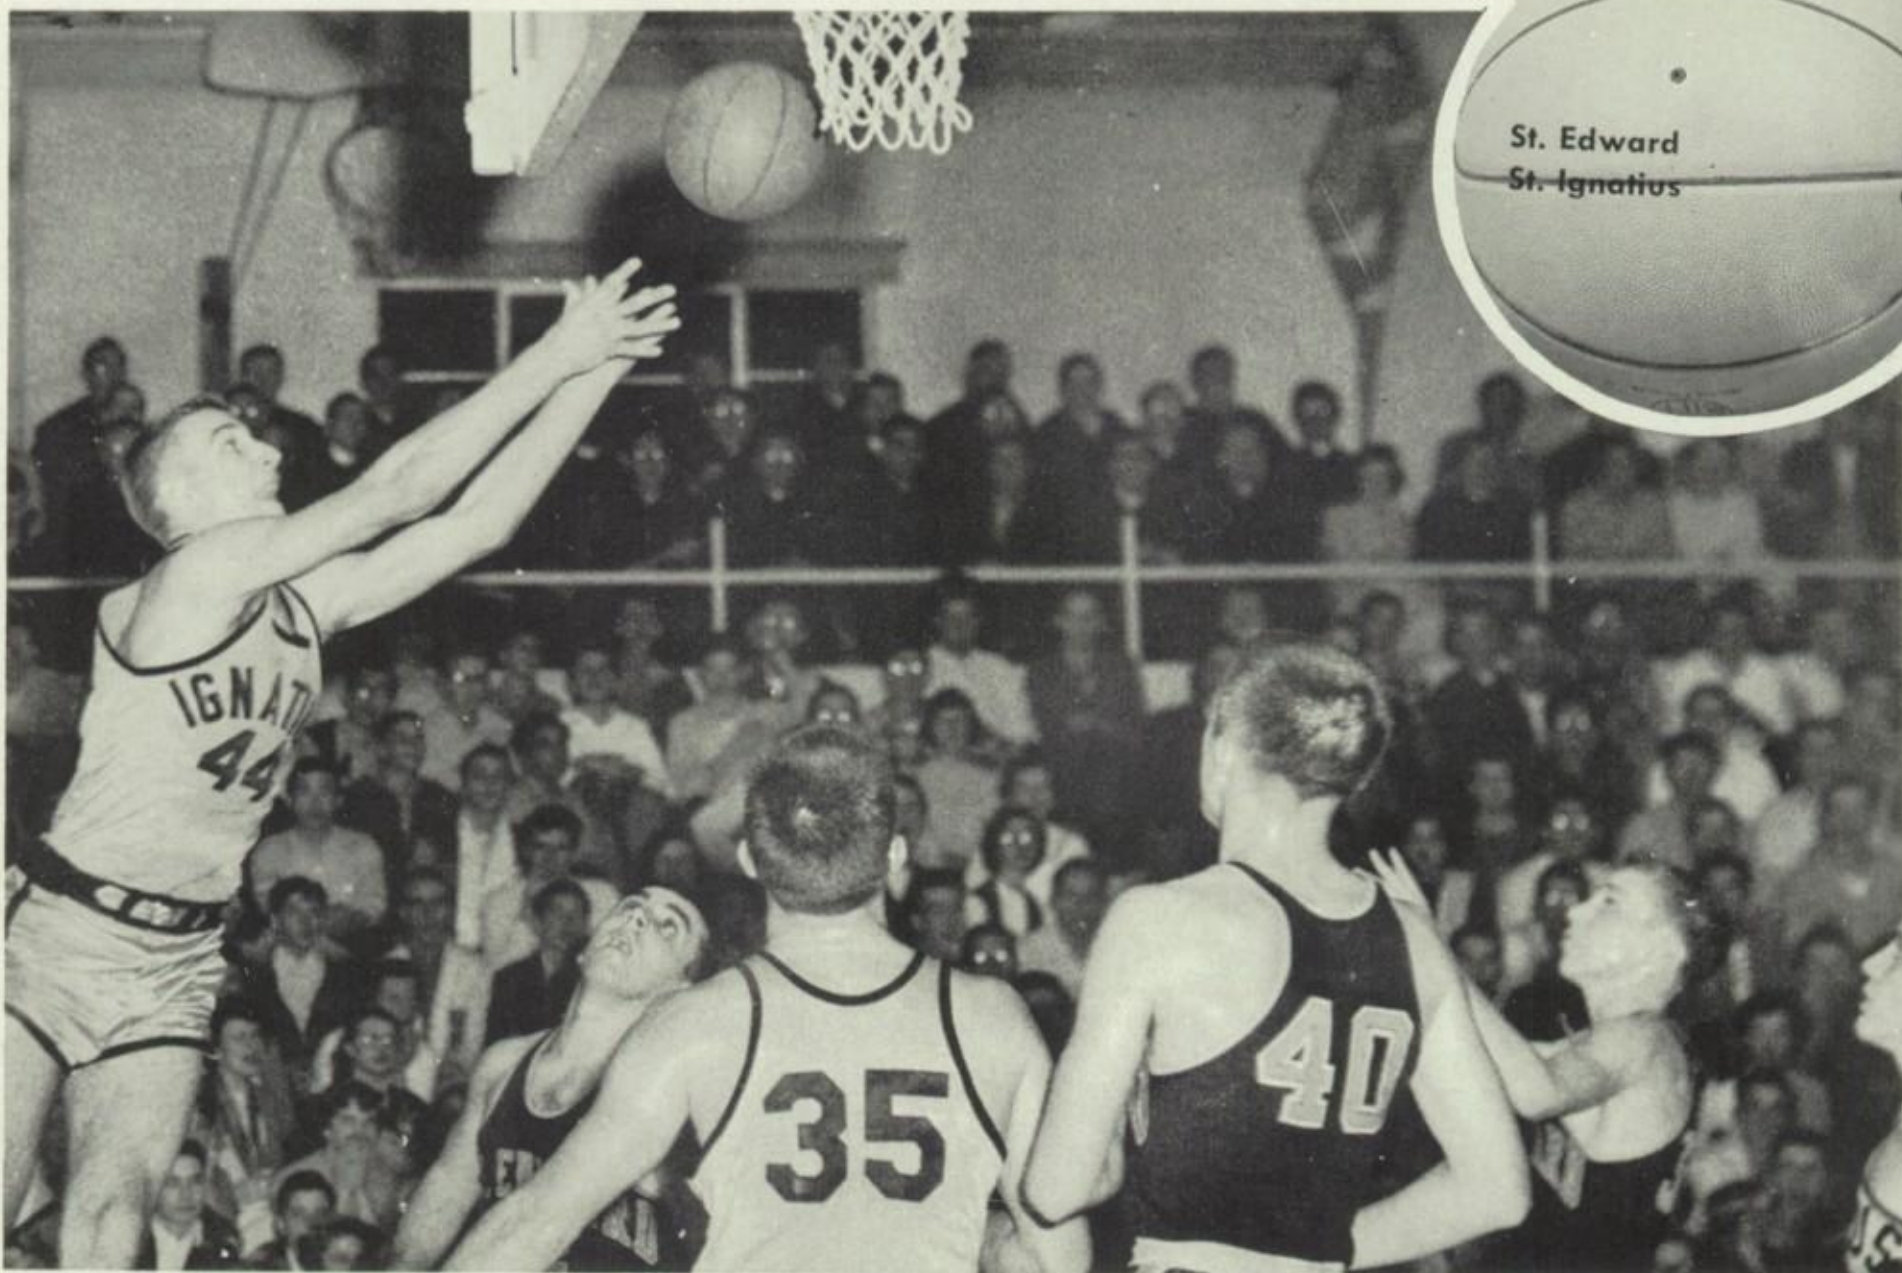

After the loss to St. Ed's, the Saints bounced back to win the next seven games, including a thrilling victory over West. Most of these seven victories were close games right down to the wire. But whenever the chips were down, the Ignatius spirit took over and pulled the Cats through.

During the second half of the season, the Cats' terrific pace began to tell on them. They were able to chalk up only four wins out of the ten remaining games on the schedule. However, the hoopsters finished second in the West Senate race and—another tribute to Mr. Wirtz' top-notch coaching—were on the arena card for the sixth consecutive year.

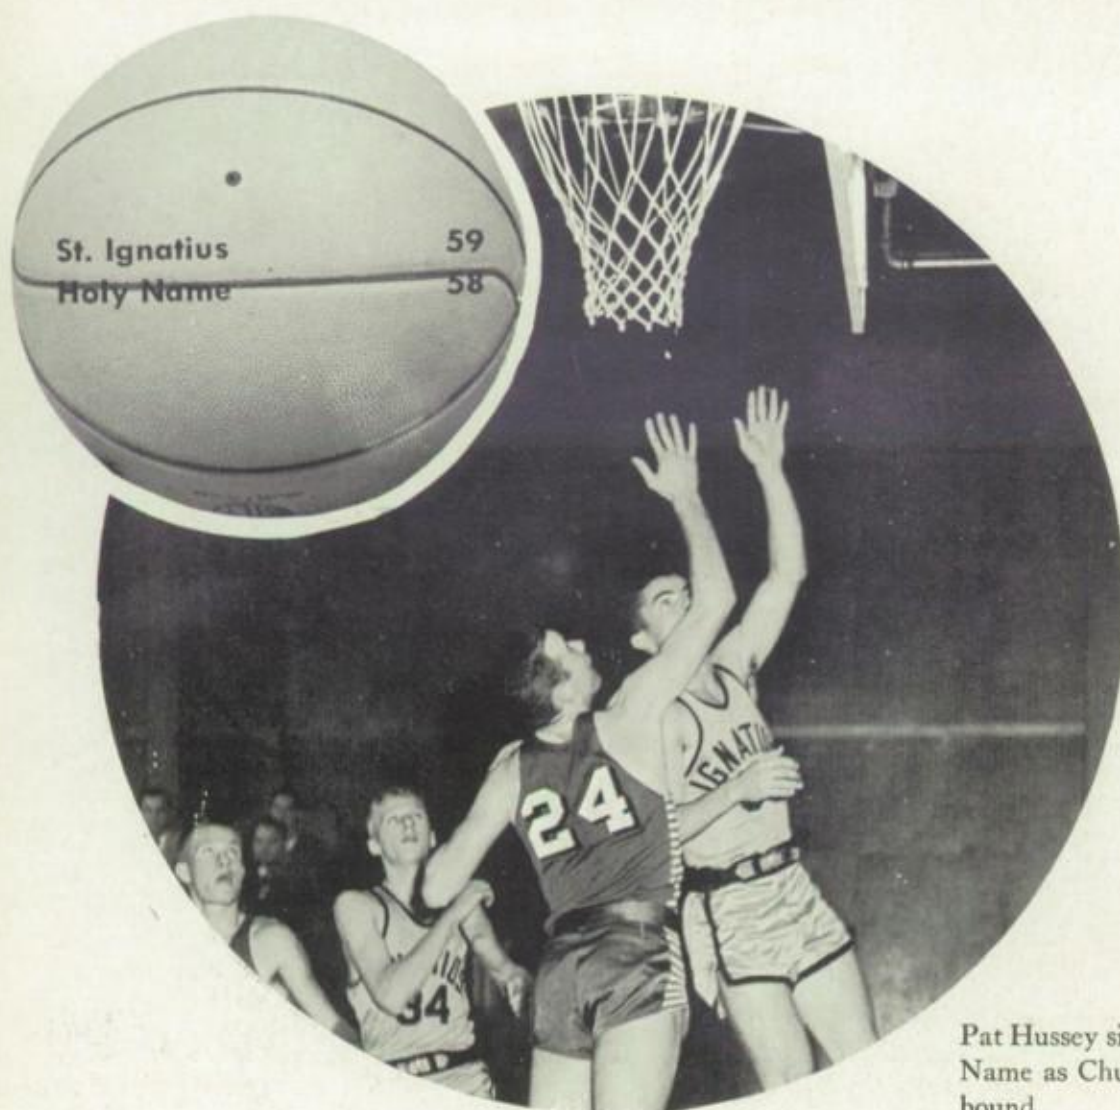

Whether in victory or in defeat, the Blue and Gold always let their opponents know that they would put up a battle to the finish.

A team with such a burning desire to win is a team that is hard to beat. The Wildcats of 1955 proved just that.

That's "Joe" Furin sticking his tongue out as he tries a two-handed lay-up in the St. Edward thriller.

The Eagles from St. Edward staged a comeback and edged the Wildcats in a sudden death double overtime, 67-65. Chuck Cybulski had 19 points, while Jack Gingerich had 16 and Dave Maskell had 11.

A last second desperation heave from mid-court by Jack Gingerich was the deciding factor in the Cats' first Senate win as they edged Holy Name, 59-58. Chuck Cybulski was high point man again with 13 points and was followed very closely by Gingerich with 12, Pat Hussey with 11, and Frank Szafranski with 10.

Jack Gingerich says, "Come to papa, Mr. Basketball" as Frank Szafranski and Pat Hussey look on.

The Cats won their first breather of the season, whipping Rhodes, 72-49. Chuck Cybulski was again high with 28 points. Dave Maskell got 12 and Frank Szafranski got 11.

Still high point man, Chuck Cybulski tallied 18 points against Marshall while Jack Delaney got 11 and Jack Gingerich got 10. The Cats won a very close game, 55-54, aided by Delaney, who got off the bench in the third quarter and started popping from all over, much to Marshall's dismay.

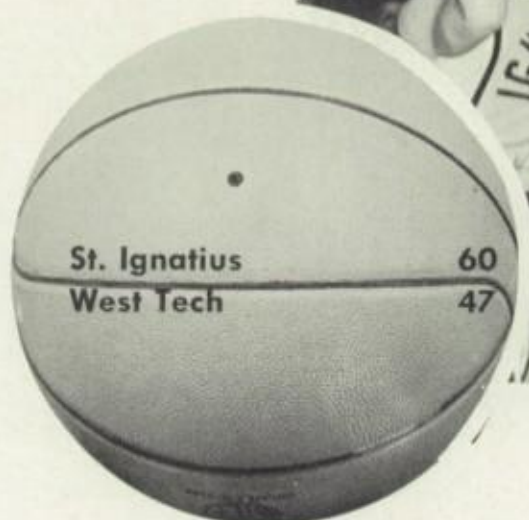

That's Captain Gingerich gunning from mid-court.

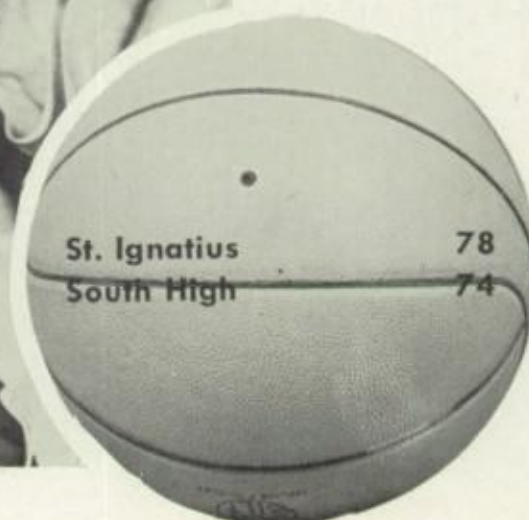

Again coming from behind, the Cats pulled the game out in the third quarter against West Tech and won, 60-47. Gary Furin came off the bench in the latter part of the second quarter and copped the high man honors from Chuck Cybulski as he netted 17. Cybulski got 13, and Jack Delaney followed with 12.

The Saints had the clutch touch again against South. With their characteristic spirited play, they came out the victors, 78-74. Chuck Cybulski meshed 28 points while Jack Delaney got 21, and Frank Szafranski got 14.

"Chip" Gingerich's jump shot heads for the net to ring up two more points for Ignatius.

"The ball is such an important thing" runs through Frank Szafranski's mind as he fights for the all-important sphere.

Remembering the defeat handed to them on the gridiron, the Cats played their usual aggressive play against Latin's Lions and came out on top, 57-55. Jack Delaney was high with 17 points and was followed by Chuck Cybulski with 13 and Frank Szafranski with 11.

Before a SRO house of 2100 fans, the Wildcats displayed their clutch play once again and beat the top-rated West High Cowboys, 69-68, taking the West Senate lead. Chuck Cybulski proved he was the best big man in the district as he took home the scoring honors with 22 points. Following "Cy" in the scoring was Frank Szafranski with 16 and Jack Delaney with 14.

The Wildcats had their seven-game string snapped by a fired-up Lincoln team, 73-66. Chuck Cybulski again came through with another fine performance, netting 28 points, while Frank Szafranski collected 14 and Jack Delaney and Gary Furin contributed 10 apiece.

Bob Ptacek of Holy Name dropped in the second of two foul shots to break a 56-56 tie with five seconds remaining. Chuck Cybulski meshed 15 points as Frank Szafranski and Jack Gingerich followed with 12 and 11 respectively.

The Wildcats stayed on West's heels with a 72-50 win over Rhodes as Gary Furin scored 15 and Frank Szafranski and Jack Delaney both netted 12. Chuck Cybulski and Jack Gíngerich also hit in double figures, getting 11 and 10 points respectively.

The Cats' once bright hopes of a West Senate title were shattered when John Marshall trampled them, 74-43. Jack Delaney collected 12 points and Chuck Cybulski had 10.

The Saints, working a very effective full-court press, downed West Tech, 68-41, to remain in contention for the West Senate crown. Chuck Cybulski blistered the nets for 23 points while Jack Delaney meshed 12.

The next week, the Cats' title hopes stayed alive with their 76-69 victory over South. Chuck Cybulski, Jack Delaney, and Ray Reinhart made 27, 14, and 12 points respectively.

Swish! Two more for Delaney.

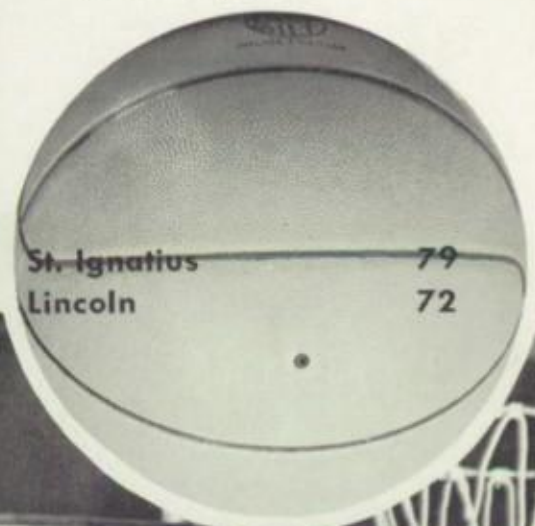

The Saints, although playing one of their best games of the season, lost to West Senate champion West, 53-49. Chuck Cybulski scored 14 markers while Gary Furin made 11.

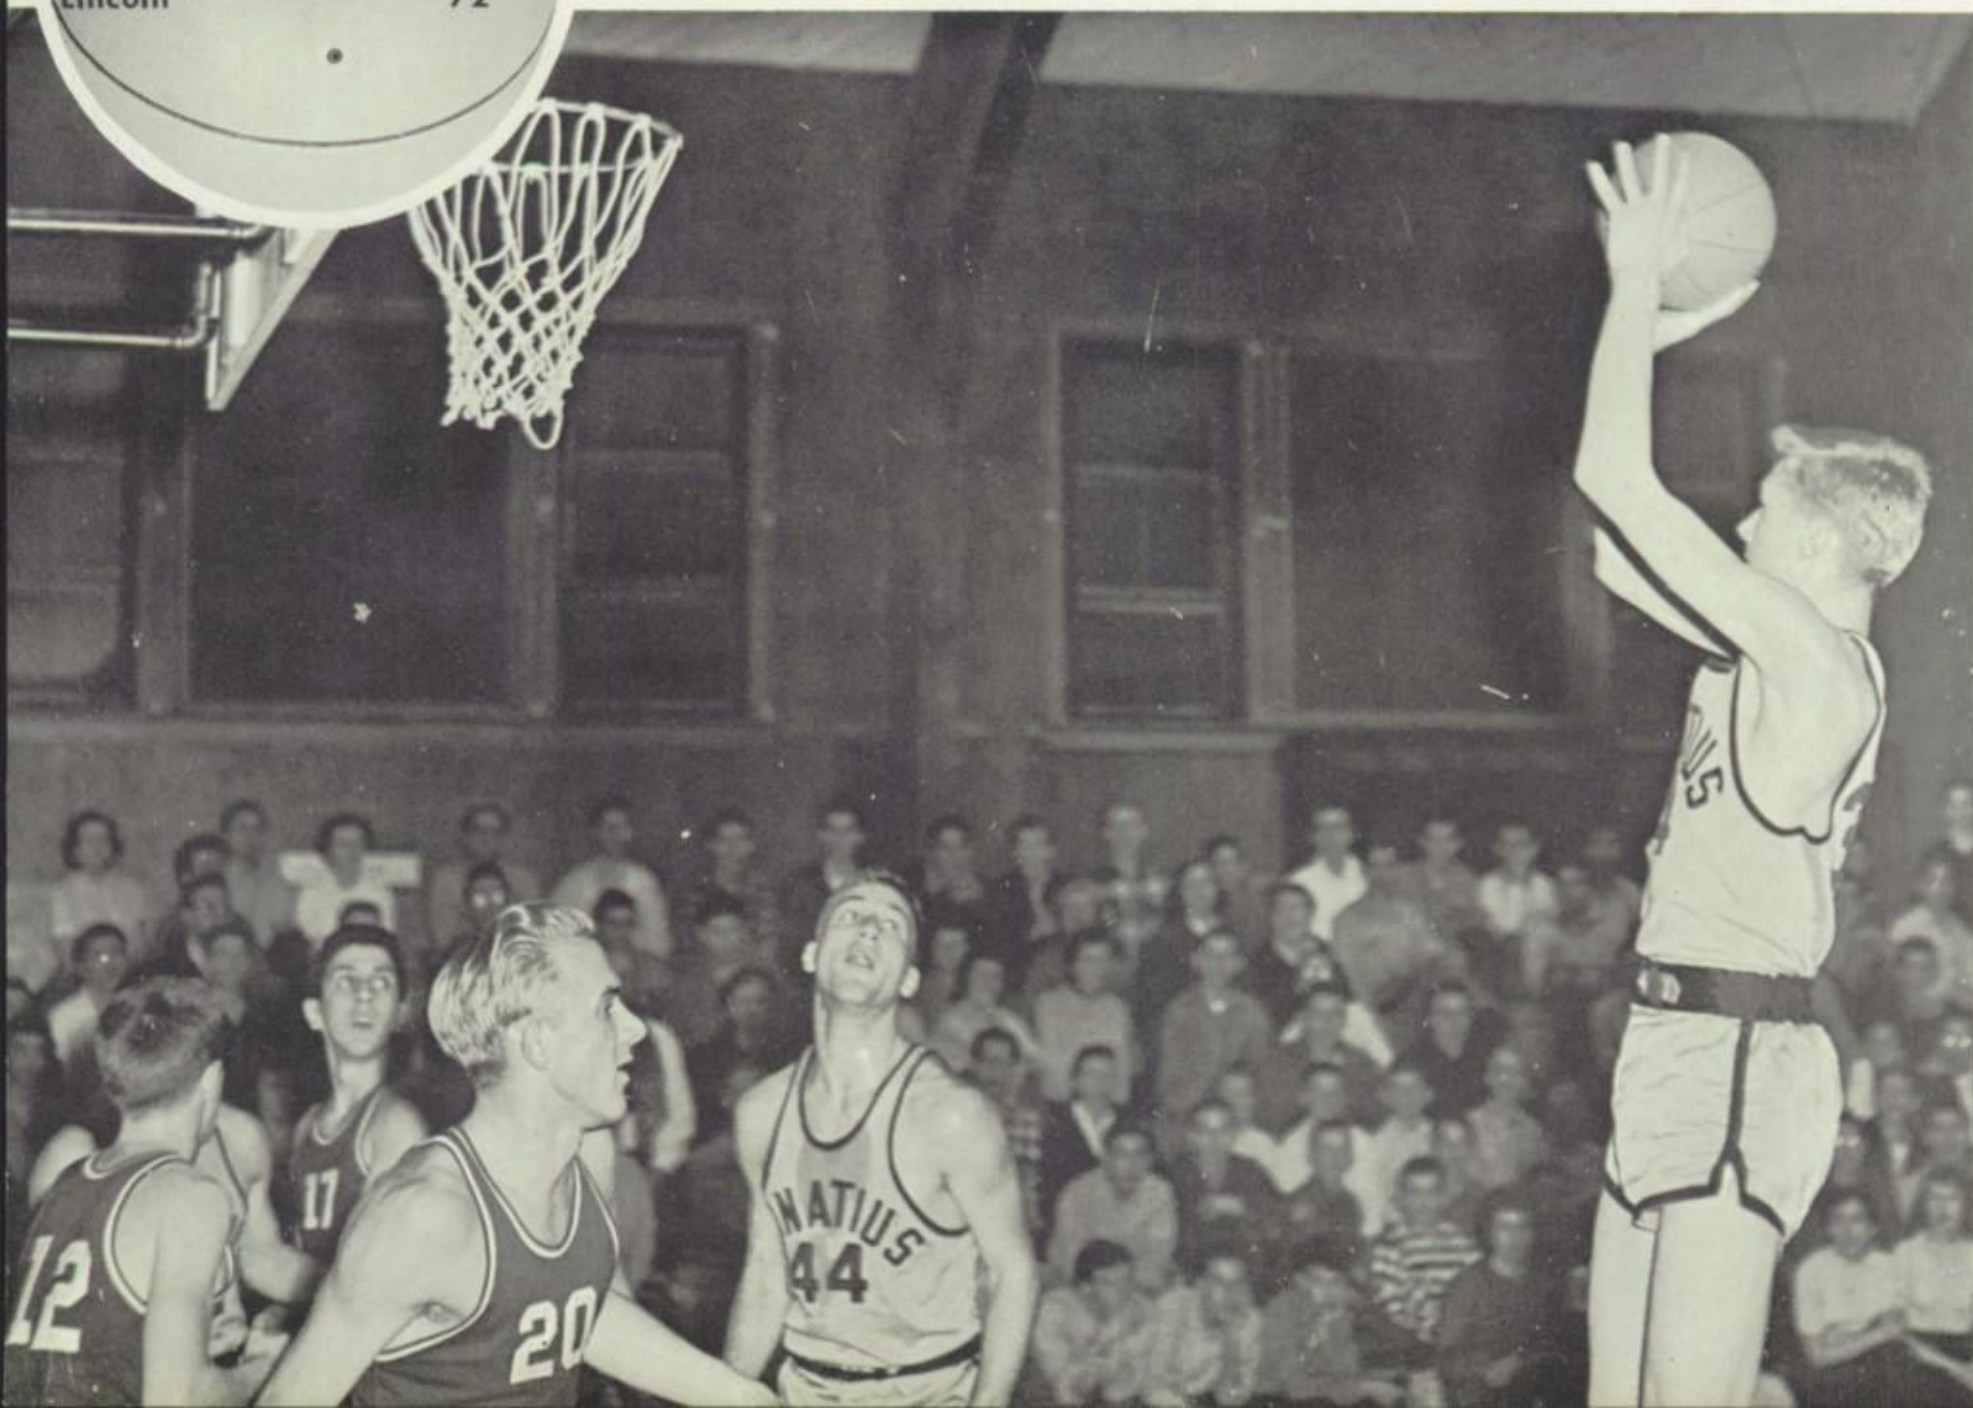

In the last Senate game of the season, the Cats downed Lincoln, 79-72. Chuck Cybulski recorded the day's high with 22 points. Gary Furin followed with 18 points, Frank Szafranski with 14, Jack Delaney and "Chip" Gingerich with 10.

Appearing in the consolation slot on the Arena card, the Saints faced an ultra-hot Latin ball club and were downed, 73-48. The Cats lacked their usual scoring punch with only Jack Delaney and Chuck Cybulski finishing in double figures.

Tournaments

One of the biggest upsets at the Berea tournaments was achieved by Marshall as it eked out a 53-51 victory over the third-seeded Cats. Jack Delaney blistered the nets with set shots and tallied 18 markers. Frank Szafranski scored 10.

Sportsmen

"We're Ignatiu

John Gingerich, Varsity Basketball Captain, receives the sportsmanship trophy on behalf of the school from Dr. Schinnerer. Mr. Wirtz, Wildcat Coach, and Monsignor Elwell look on.

Tuesday, March 8, 1955, was a great day in the history of St. Ignatius. Before an assembly of the whole student body, Monsignor Clarence E. Elwell and Dr. Mark C. Schinnerer, superintendents of the Cleveland Catholic and public school systems respectively, presented the school with the sportsmanship trophy. Ignatians were doubly honored since this was the first time the trophy was awarded. All Senate schools were eligible and the tro phy was presented on the basis of referees' votes.

The sportsmanship trophy was a fitting climax to a hard and cleanly fought season. Though it applied explicitly to the attitude of the team and fans at basketball games, it was a fitting recognition of the spirit of fair play and gentlemanliness that characterize true Ignatians.

Congratulations, coach, team, and fans, sportsmen of the year in the city of sportsmen!

Senate Record 9-5

Improving with each game, the Junior Cats proved themselves tough to beat. It seems that some of the spirited play of the varsity rubbed off on them for the only dents in their record were made by Champions West and Latin and by overtime losses to Rhodes and Marshall. Neil Huber and George Piatak were the standouts on the team and were both first-string all season. The other three positions were divided among Jack McNeeley, Dave Schostek, Den Griesmer, Bob Kirstein, Dave Borchert, Pete Cogan, and Joe Miller.

Season Record 21-2

Amazing Wild Kittens

If freshman hardwood teams are any indication of what is to come, then the district had better watch out for our Wildkittens. They compiled an amazing 21-2 record as they romped through their schedule. Particularly dangerous were leading scorers George Hohman with 233 points, Garry Roggenburk with 196, and Norm Schmotzer with 192. Other stand-outs were Chuck Baloga, Ken LaVergne, and J. Reilly Carron.

Norm Schmotzer leaps high with teammate George Hohman for the rebound.

Garry Roggenburk swings wide for a one-handed shot. Schmotzer and Baloga stand by.

Coach Bob Kilfoyle shows Diamond Cats Haas, Martau, and Hayes the proper way to bunt.

Baseball time is here again and so Mr. Kilfoyle hands Neil Martau his equipment.

With a reputation of state semi-finalists to uphold, the 1955 edition of St. Ignatius' baseball team started practice early in spring. A new coach, Mr. Bob Kilfoyle, was at the helm. He depended heavily on returning lettermen Haas, Dolcini, Kane, Hayes, Miller, Martau, and Willis.

Though at the time the Ignatian went to press the regular season had not as yet started, we venture to predict that if this year's team reaches its potential, Ignatians will have another baseball trophy to admire.

Cinderella Team

One thing that can be said about the 1954 Diamond Cats is that they could really play for the blue chips. When the cards were on the table and when the chips were down, this team came through. Led by the big bat of catcher Terry Hayes and the strong right arm of Chuck Mazza, the 1954 baseballers, under the coaching of Mr. Dick Coyle, advanced to the semifinals of the state baseball tournament. After defeating John Marshall and West High handily, the Coylemen won three straight at League Park. With these three victories they also won the right to represent Northeastern Ohio in the finals at Columbus. They lost to the state champions, Mansfield, by a score of 3-1 on a soggy field.

Though in regular West Senate play the Diamond Cats finished in the lower half of the league, their heads-up tournament play made them truly a Cinderella team.

Pat Hussey hands off the baton to "Chip" Gingerich at the beginning of the third lap of the 880 relay.

Pffft!!

Down through the years, St. Ignatius has not been known for its track teams. But in the spring of 1954,* the Wildcat cindermen made people sit up and take notice. Coach John Wirtz' men took many meets during the year and also showed up well in the district meets. In those meets, Ignatius had a number of men who qualified to make the trip to Columbus for the state track finals. Among these finalists were Dick Mihalus, a dashman, and the half mile and mile relay teams, composed of Bill Voitlein, John Gingerich, Pat Hussey, Ron Koval, and Ron Bischof.

If last year's team was any indication of the track teams to come, Ignatians will acquire a reputation as trackmen along with their grid and cage accomplishments.

*Because the Ignatian goes to the printer before the opening of the regular track season, coverage is limited mostly to the previous year.

1954 VARSITY TRACK TEAM. First row: Gorgone, Atzberger, and Sikora. Second row: Koval, Gingerich, Mihalus, Greene, Worley, Swingle, and Pack. Third row: Coach John Wirtz, Linden, Springer, Voitlein, Bischof, Cadek, Hussey, and Fr. Dempsey, S.J.

"Oh, my aching back!" Mr. Von Kaenel leads his frosh trackmen through calisthenics.

Three in a Row

For the last two years the frosh Cinder Cats have been burning up the district cinder paths. Under the coaching of Mr. Von Kaenel, S. J., the team has won the Senate championship twice in a row. Last year, the title came as a fitting climax to a perfect 10-0 record.

Individual stars broke several school records, but team effort was the real clue to the frosh Cinder Cats' success.

This year, the team scheduled meets with West, Collinwood, Latin, St. Joseph, Rhodes, Holy Name, Benedictine, Maple Heights, Marshall, Parma, and St. Edward.

1954 FROSH TRACK TEAM. First row: McAndrew, Brickman, Gluvna, Bromeier, Hildebrandt, Hippley, Fisher, and McHugh. Second row: Bontempo, Psenicka, Di Zinno, Piatak, Boufford, Capka, Lenhard, W. Murphy. Third row: Redella, Szemer, Popelka, Bachman, Kantor, O'Brien, Leisz, Richter, Schoenenberger. Fourth row: Mr. Von Kaenel, S.J., M. Murphy, Majeski, Tupa, Tirpak, Paynic, Miszak, and Campbell.

Netmen

The tennis team, under the capable direction of Mr. John O'Neill, S.J., is one of the many athletic pursuits open to the student with the coming of spring. The Wildcat "net and racket" boys have been molded to form an almost unbeatable array, with senior George Hahn, juniors John Kilbane and Pete Cogan, and sophomore Bill Reichard strong contenders for city honors.

Off for the links! Mr. Zuber, S.J., coach of the golf team, chats with members Brabenec, Roy, Gluntz, and Arnold.

Linksmen

The "par busters," coached by Mr. Thomas Zuber, S.J., capably round out St. Ignatius' athletic program this year. The linksmen owe much of their success to their determination and spirit. For much of their training was on their own, a firm proof of the popularity of the sport among high school students. On the fairways they distinguished themselves as Catholic gentlemen and true sportsmen.
